

Programme

Cheshire & Merseyside Health & Care Partnership Blood Pressure Quality Improvement Event

Location: Holiday Inn Runcorn, Wood Lane, Beechwood, Runcorn, Cheshire, WA7 3HA

Date & time: Tuesday 5th March 2019 12.00-3.00pm

12.00-12.45: Lunch and networking

Section One: Context and the case for change

12.45-12.55: Welcome to Cheshire & Merseyside Health & Care Partnership Blood Pressure Quality Improvement by Chair

Glenn Coleman - Head of Primary Care and Programme Director General Practice Forward View North Region (Cheshire & Merseyside)

12.55-13.15: National Perspective on Cardiovascular Disease and High Blood Pressure-

Dr Matt Kearney - National Clinical Director for Cardiovascular Disease Prevention, NHS England & Public Health England

13.15-13.45: The Cheshire & Merseyside Blood Pressure Picture

Nina Russell - NHS RightCare Delivery Partner, Cheshire & Merseyside

Dr Charlotte Simpson - Healthcare Public Health Consultant, Public Health England North West

Dr Mel Roche - Public Health Consultant, Champs Public Health Collaborative

13.45-13.50: Summary of section one, and outline for section two

13:50-14.00: Break and review of CCG data packs

Section 2: Supporting next steps for quality improvement

14.00-14.15: Workshop: Local priorities and existing work

14.15-14.30: Primary Care Blood Pressure Quality Improvement Package

Pippa Rose - General Practice Forward View Transformation Programme Nursing Lead, NHS England Cheshire & Merseyside

Jane Briers - Clinical Development Co-ordinator (North West), The British Heart Foundation

14.30-14.50: Workshop: Priority actions

14.50-15.00: Panel Q&A

15.00: Close

Programme subject to change. Photographs may be taken at this event, please let the organisers know if you do not wish for your photograph to be published.